Celebrating the past...

Junior Achievement of South Central PA is celebrating 50 years of service to the region. Reaching more than 33,000 students in Kindergarten through Grade 12 each school year, JA is committed to empowering young people to own their future economic success.

Since 1961, Junior Achievement of South Central PA has touched the lives of more than 447,000 local students, connecting them to members of the business community, enhancing the relevancy of their education, and reinforcing classroom curricula. JA volunteers transform key concepts into messages that inspire and empower students to believe in themselves, showing them that they can make a difference in the world. JA's golden anniversary is a milestone worthy of special recognition.

An everlasting display of your generosity.

...Building the Future

In recognition of JA's golden anniversary, a Legacy Giving Wall will be built in the entranceway of the JA offices. The wall will be constructed of commemorative slate tiles to showcase the generosity of the community and the outstanding commitment to JA's mission – one that is even more relevant today as it was 50 years ago. By making a three-year commitment to JA's Building the Future campaign, a slate tile will be personalized to your specifications and placed among the other benevolent supporters. Experience the pride that comes from seeing your tile and knowing that you are an everlasting supporter of an extraordinary cause.

The Building the Future campaign is intended to help establish a foundation of support to launch Junior Achievement into the next fifty years of service to the region.

Engraved tiles are available in three sizes to distinguish various giving levels.
